

I am writing to request a copy of the documents that were presented in court yesterday. I would like to review the information in comparison with my bank records. According to my records, following the settlement on March 21, 2023, I have received only a total of $250, detailed below by date:

- April 3, 2023 - $50
- May 1, 2023 - $50
- June 2, 2023 - $50
- July 6, 2023 - $50
- October 3, 2023 - $50

You indicated an overpayment, but I have no record of receiving any additional funds beyond the amounts listed. If there had been an overpayment, I would not have needed to attend court yesterday. Therefore, I would appreciate it if you could provide further details regarding the alleged overpayments so that I can verify them with my bank.

Please note that although our company's domain and email have changed, you may still use @.com for e-transfers. Alternatively, you may send correspondence to @.com if there are issues with the primary address.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please see the attached documents for reference.

Best regards,